HOW WE KEEP THE YACHT CODES CURRENT

Watched every day, checked every week, re-checked monthly

Yacht codes and notices change. SeaReady's daily job watches the official yacht sources (any it cannot read are followed up), and every inspection shows when it was last verified.

Daily: the yacht codes

UK MCA REG Yacht Code, Marshall Islands MI-103 and Malta CYC 2025 Rev. 1, plus MCA notices such as MGN 681.

Daily: flags, USCG, IMO

UK MCA, Marshall Islands and Malta flag portals, USCG notices (MSIBs, NVICs) and IMO circulars.

Weekly and monthly

Every Monday each scheme is checked for new editions; the first Monday of each month, a deeper re-check is scheduled.

Crew rules

Rest-hour rules re-checked against MLC 2006 and STCW whenever that module is due.

> Dated facts are corrected once verified; a new code edition is re-mapped and tested before release.

LIVE TODAY

SOURCE DATES ON EACH CHECK

Source dates on yacht-code checks

In the Inspector view each yacht-code check shows when SeaReady read its source. Notices are watched daily.

When its sources were checked

Shown on each check of a complete yacht pack in the Inspector view.

The edition it follows

The packs are built from editions including the July 2024 REG Yacht Code and the May 2026 revision of MI-103.

Flag and yacht notices, daily

The daily job watches yacht and flag sources every morning; any it cannot read are followed up.
